

Steinway & Sons

REMOTE CONTROL

The iconic Steinway & Sons remote control for stereo and surround sound systems features a rotating wheel crafted from solid, gold-plated or chrome-plated brass, mounted on precision-machined Swiss bearings. It's elegance you can touch, integrity you can feel. It provides intuitive and easy-to-operate command of your Steinway Lyngdorf system. Two versions are available, for the Steinway & Sons multichannel processors or the stereo processor.
